HYMNS FOR TODAY

For the Sunday School and Church

"Meets the need of the hour."—Henry G. Bowden.

"An admirable general-purpose book for religious, social and patriotic gatherings. Designed to fit into the programs of Sunday Schools conducted after the most modern methods. 332 finely chosen hymns and songs, singable, but free from clap-trap."—Christian Endeavor World.

Bishop Henderson says: "Ten years ago the favorite hymn was 'When the Roll is Called up Yonder,' but now it is displaced by 'The Son of God goes Forth to War.' Young people of today are singing songs of service." This is the sentiment of religious leaders today.

Hymns for Today contains excellent Orders of Services and Indexes pointing out the material especially adapted to the various departments of the School and Church.

Bound in fine cloth with gold stamp. Price, $75 per 100. Sample sent for examination. Orchestrated.

Fillmore Music House, 587 Cincinnati, Ohio

This certifies that on Sunday morning, September the fifth, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, in Park Church, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the city of Lexington, State of Kentucky, after a sermon preached by me, I, Collins Denny, one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, did ordain to the office of a Deacon in the Church of God George Ray Tomlin, a traveling preacher, he having been elected to that office by the Kentucky Annual Conference of the above named church, and having been presented for ordination by W. E. Arnold, an Elder and the Secretary of the Annual Conference mentioned above. In this service J. W. Harris, an Elder, read the Epistle. At the same time Edward A. Bennett, who had been received as a local preacher by the Lexington District Conference of the above mentioned Kentucky Conference, and whose ordination to the diaconate by the Methodist Episcopal Church had been recognized by the Kentucky Conference spoken of above, assumed the vows of a Deacon. Immediately after ordaining the Deacon and assisted in the laying on of hands by H. C. Morrison, J. P. Strother, E. L. Griffy, and the before named J. W. Harris, all Elders, I ordained Augustus G. Cox to the office of Elder in the Church of God, a traveling preacher, elected to that office by the Kentucky Annual Conference named above, and presented for ordination by W. E. Arnold mentioned above. In this service J. P. Strother, named above, read the Gospel. At the same time Charles Oscar Humphrey, who had been received as a local preacher by the Jackson District Conference of the Kentucky Conference mentioned above, and whose ordination as Elder by the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene had been recognized by the above mentioned Kentucky Annual Conference, assumed the vows of an Elder.

Given over my hand this fifth day of September, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty, in the city of Lexington, State of Kentucky.

COLLINS DENNY.

On motion the Conference authorized the appointment of J. M. Robinson as a supply.

A question of law previously submitted by W. E. Arnold was read, together with the Bishop's decision, as follows:

Question of law propounded at the Kentucky Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, September 4, 1920, Lexington, Kentucky.

A. was received on trial in the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the session of the said Conference held in 1919. At the session of 1920 his name was called and the Committee of Examination of the Class of the First Year reported that he was not before them for examination. His character was passed and he was continued in the Class of the First Year. The Bishop presiding instructed that his name be listed under Question 1, "Who are admitted on trial?" with a note indicating that he was continued in the Class of the First Year. Question: Should his name in the condensed Minutes be printed under Question 1, "Who are admitted on trial?" or under Question 2, "Who remain on trial?" and under what questions should the other classes be listed?

W. E. ARNOLD.

Answer. In the minute questions asked at an Annual Conference under Question 1, "Who are admitted on trial?" the names of the members of the Class of the First Year should be entered; under Question 2, "Who remain on trial?" the names of the members of the Class of the Second Year; under Question 4, "Who are admitted into full connection?" the names of the members of the Class of the Third Year; under Question 12, "Who are the Deacons of one year?" the names of the members of the Class of the Fourth Year. Should a brother in any class fail to pass his examination, if he continue in the traveling ministry, he remains in that class, and the minutes by some note should show that fact. The name of Brother A should be entered under Question 1, with some note to show that he is continued in the Class of the First Year.

COLLINS DENNY.

Lexington, Ky., September 4, 1920.

Announcement of changes in the districts and pastoral charges and churches was read by the Bishop.

Minutes were read, corrected and approved. Hymn No. 556 was sung, and J. W. Harris led in prayer. Appointments were read by Bishop Denny, thus answering Question 36, "Where are the preachers stationed this year?"

REPORT NO. 1 OF BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Board of Missions submits the following report:

The Conference will be pleased to know that there has been a slight increase in the per cent of the collections paid over last year, and that the report of the Evangelistic Campaign Director shows that there has been 1,273 accessions to the church by certificate and 1,629 by profession of faith; that there are 1,109 family altars, 1,307 tithers, and 177 persons have offered themselves for life service.

In view of our enlarged opportunities both at home and abroad and the fact that we now have more than 30,000 members, the gain has been insignificant, and there is urgent need that we "pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into his vineyard."

We recommend that the following persons be elected as an Evangelistic Committee; B. C. Horton, G. W. Banks, J. L. Gaugh, W. E. Darragh, W. P. Fryman.

We ask that the assessment on the Conference be made the same as last year.

Appropriations were made as follows:

Covington District.

BOARD OF EDUCATION—REPORT NO. 1.Educational Campaign Resolutions.

Whereas, The General Conference in laying constructive plans to meet two great responsibilities of the church recommended that there be two church-wide intensive movements during the present quadrennium, one for missions and one for Christian education, in the following resolutions:

"We recommend that the right of way be given to the Centenary movement in the first two years and to the educational campaign during the second two years of the quadrennium and that during these two periods as far as possible the full power of the church be delivered in these respective campaigns."

2. And whereas, our educational institutions are in great need of increased funds to enable them to move forward and develop or to enable them even to maintain their present standing and efficiency under changing conditions, and whereas we recognize the fact that the above order of the General Conference has kept our educational institutions from presenting their needs to the church during the past two years, and whereas the imperative needs of our Kentucky Wesleyan College are a largely increased endowment, much larger dormitory space, an adequate gymnasium and a central heating plant;

3. And inasmuch as the tragic events of the past few years have shown us that education without Christ is mockery and a menace to the peace and safety of the world and that American education must be Christian if the Church and America are to be true to their mission;

4. And whereas the M. E. Church, South, is now short eight hundred preachers and at the same time is calling for hundreds of missionaries and trained workers not now available, and recognizing our responsibility for discovering and training young men and women for this work in order that our church may grow and serve according to her opportunity;

5. And inasmuch as we feel our obligation, jointly with that of the other Conferences of our great Church, to focus our attention this year upon the matter of Christian Education in the home, the church, and the school; be it

Resolved, First, That we endorse the plans of the Educational Commission for carrying out the will of the General Conference and pledge our hearty support and best efforts in achieving the five-fold object of the campaign:

1. To develop in the mind of the church an adequate conception of the place of Christian Education in the life of the Church, of the Nation, and of the world.

2. To promote the cause of religious education by bringing about a closer and more effective co-operation between our institutions of learning and the Sunday School. and by establishing strong departments of religious education in our colleges and universities;

3. To lead our young men and women in sufficient numbers to supply the demands to pledge themselves to give their lives to the ministry, to missions, or to some other form of Christian activity, and to seek a Christian education as a preparation for effective life service;

4. To raise for our schools, colleges and universities at least $33,000,000.00, the minimum sum necessary to enable them to send out the increasing number of prepared Christian leaders required to carry forward the Christian work of the world, and to secure $1,000,000.00 to aid worthy students who are preparing for some form of specific Christian work.

5. To deepen the moral and spiritual life of our people and to promote the spirit of Christian liberality in all of the efforts put forth to realize these objectives.

Second, That we take proper steps to fix the attention of our people on the fundamental place of Christian education in the life and mission of the church and of our country and that we urge our pastors to preach and teach on the subject and our laymen to lend their aid in every way possible.

Third, That we call on all our people to pray for teachers, presidents, trustees and others engaged in work with our educational institutions that they may be led to dedicate their lives to Christ, their Lord and Master, in whatever work they do.

Fourth, That we request the appointment of a Conference Educational Secretary to be the full-time executive of the Conference Educational Commission and that we pledge him, when appointed, our full loyalty and support.

Fifth, That we appoint a Conference Educational Commission, composed of W. E. Arnold, W. W. Ball, R. M. Smith, Miss Belle H. Bennett, F. B. Jones, C. H. Greer, J. E. Savage and O. B. Crockett, Conference Secretary of Education, for the purpose of co-operating with the General Conference Educational Commission and for putting into operation necessary plans for securing the support of all our churches for this movement.

Sixth, That we assume for the Kentucky Conference the sum of $400,000.00 approved askings to which shall be added $120,000.00 additional askings making a total of $520,000.00 for our askings, and authorize the Conference Educational Commission, with the help of the Presiding Elders, to divide at the proper time, this amount equitably among the churches of the Conference.

Seventh, That we call on all our churches to co-operate in a manner worthy of the impelling needs of our Christian educational program in arousing every member to respond in giving fullest financial support to the collection to be taken next spring.

Eighth, That the month of November be set as the time to present the educational campaign in every church.

W. E. ARNOLD, President.

C. H. GREER, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2.

We are now entering the church-wide educational movement wisely planned by our last General Conference and rejoice that we have come to the day when all the Church will make an effort to provide adequate funds to so equip our educational institutions that our great church may occupy her rightful place among the forces of our country engaged in Christian education.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. O. B. Crockett as our full-time Conference Secretary of Education and beg to assure him of our most hearty and sympathetic co-operation.

We recommend the payment of the Correspondence School tuition fees of our undergraduates out of the Ministerial Aid Fund and urge the young men to take early and full advantage of the opportunities offered by this school.

We recommend an assessment of ten thousand dollars upon the Conference for Conference education, and of eight hundred dollars for aid for young ministers.

We report the following educational statistics: Institutions, 1;

students, 171; teachers, 18; value of property, $300,000.00; endowment, $110,275.00.

KENTUCKY WESLEYAN COLLEGE.

The past collegiate year was one of marked success. The dormitories were well filled with earnest students and under the management of President W. B. Campbell the work moved on smoothly.

Prospects for the coming year are most promising. Already our entire dormitory space has been taken and those in charge are embarrassed with the problem of finding room for those still unprovided for. This shows the imperative need of immediate enlarged dormitory space.

We are adding, this year, the department of Religious Education, under Prof. A. H. Shannon, who comes to us highly recommended as a splendidly equipped and most capable teacher.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. ARNOLD, President.

C. H. GREER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PUBLICATION OF CENTRAL METHODIST.

Present conditions have affected the publication of our paper, and have presented the difficulties common to all papers during the year. Our paper has gone forward, not missing a single regular issue; sometimes it has had to appear reduced in size, sometimes on inferior paper, but we hope from now on, it will appear in full size and on good paper.

After very careful consideration, the Commission has been compelled to increase the subscription rate to $2.00 per year, and to preachers and Conference claimants to $1.50 per year, and to withdraw all clubbing and reduced rates.

The Commission most heartily commends the Editorial and Business Management of the paper; and has re-elected Dr. W. E. Arnold Editor, at a salary of $3,000.00 per year. We recommend that the Conference shall assume the salary of the Editor, and place assessments for same, $1,300.00 on the Kentucky Conference, and $1,700.00 on the Louisville Conference. The Editor is to give his time to the Editorial work of the paper, and to travel over the Conferences in its interest as much as practicable.

The Commission has elected Rev. S. A. Arnold, Treasurer and Business Manager, at a salary of $1,200 per year, and authorized him to secure a competent and efficient stenographer at a salary not to exceed $1,200.00 per year.

We recommend that the week of November 7th to 14th be designated as "Central Methodist week," during which time a vigorous campaign to increase our list of subscribers to 15,000 be made. Plans for this campaign to be worked out by the Editor, Business Manager and the Commission of Publication.

We recommend that the Commission of Publication be composed of two preachers and one layman, to be nominated by the Presiding Elders, and elected by the Conference.

We further recommend that the Commission of Publication be authorized to carefully investigate the possibility and practicability of securing our own equipment for the publication of our paper, and the broadening of the service we may render our people, and report their conclusions to the next sessions of our Conferences.

The Central Methodist is now the unencumbered property of the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences. It is an absolute necessity in the carrying forward of our work. We can make it a good investment rather than a difficult liability, if we will. We must support and sustain this institution of the Church heartily and generously, if it is to succeed.

S. A. ARNOLD, Manager.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We, your Sunday School Board, beg leave to submit the following report:

We rejoice in the fact that there has been a continual growth along many lines of our Sunday School work. The mission which the Sunday School is fulfilling is being recognized in a greater degree than ever before as an indispensable part of our Church work. Our people have a larger conception and a more just appreciation of the value of religious education and more fully realize the importance of the work committed to your Sunday School Board.

The most gratifying feature of our entire year's work was the Standard Training School held at Kavanaugh Camp Grounds, July 20-26. This school was a success from every standpoint. There were fifty-nine students enrolled for credit courses—thirty-four from the Kentucky Conference; twenty-four from the Louisville Conference; and two from the Western Virginia Conference. Ninety-five per cent of the students enrolled received certificates, which is the highest percentage attained by any school in Southern Methodism. The Kavanaugh Training School undoubtedly marks a new era in Sunday School work in Kentucky and its influence in creating an educational consciousness and in serving as an incentive to a higher grade of work can not be over-estimated. From it will come our Conference officers, our district leaders, and our most efficient superintendents and teachers for the local Sunday Schools.

It is to be regretted that more of our Sunday Schools did not have representatives enrolled in this Training School and we wish to urge the pastors to give their support in recruiting students for next year.

Only about sixty Sunday Schools ordered programs for the observance of Sunday School Day, which is a very small per cent. Our discipline makes it mandatory that this day be observed in an appropriate way in every School and that an offering be taken and forwarded to the treasurer of the Conference Sunday School Board.

Your Board heartily recommends to our Sunday School leaders the new Sunday School publication, "The Church School," a periodical of religious principles and methods, and we urge that all Sunday Schools provide copies for all officers and teachers.

We desire to endorse the plans and pledge our support and co-operation to the Sunday School building committee, in its effort to erect a Sunday School Administration Building and Dormitories at Lake Junaluska, N. C., which is the great central training school for Sunday School leaders. The need of these buildings is urgent and necessary if we wish to continue the high grade work already commenced.

Our Field Secretary, Dennis V. Snapp, has again been re-elected to give full time service to the promotion of the Sunday School work in the Kentucky Conference. He will visit as many schools as possible and will arrange group and district institutes and in various ways promote the interest of our Church School work.

We desire the co-operation of all our people in promoting the cause of religious education and in helping to conserve the strength of Methodism and in building up the Kingdom of God.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. GREER, Chairman.

Special mention should be made of the Sunday School Day Offering made by the Paris Sunday School of which our Chairman, Rev. C. H. Greer, is pastor. The amount $54.00 is the largest offering received this Conference year. Others should take this School for an example and do better next year.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Your Epworth League Board begs leave to submit the following report:

The Epworth League is one of the great organizations of our Church and serves as a conserving agency in saving our young people to usefulness in religious activities. It is gratifying to note the substantial growth of the Epworth League work throughout Southern Methodism. Our only regret is that so large a portion of our Church does not have League Chapters and that a great number of our younger membership remains without enlistment in the service of the Church. We therefore urge all pastors to open the way for effecting the organization of League Chapters and to put renewed energy into the Leagues already organized.

We wish to commend the excellent work being accomplished by our Conference League organization. The type of work which it is doing is not only inspirational but practical and constructive. Classes in Mission Study and Bible Study and Epworth League Methods form part of the program which it carries out.

The value of these Conference gatherings cannot be overestimated as centers for instruction, inspiration and as a means of developing a highly trained leadership. The last Assembly adopted a $2,750 budget to be applied as follows: African Centenary Special, $1,500; Jenkins Kindergarten Work, $750.00; Conference Expenses, $500.00. The work being done by Miss Fannie O'Brien, League Missionary, in the Eastern section of Kentucky is heartily endorsed by the Board. This work will be enlarged for the coming year.

Only a small portion of the League Chapters observed Epworth League Anniversary Day. The General Conference authorized that this day be observed the second Sunday in May by all Chapters and that where there is no League organization the pastor is called upon to observe this as Young People's Day. An offering should be taken on this day and sent to the treasurer of our Conference League Board.

We wish to recommend the Epworth Era as indispensable for Senior Epworth League members and the Epworth Quarterly for the assistance of Junior and Intermediate Superintendents. Also, two new books which are just off the press: "The Story of the New Testament," by Prof. Thomas Carter, and "Phunology," an admirable manual of Christian recreation by Mr. E. O. Harbin.

The Southern Epworth League Assembly held at Lake Junaluska, N. C., is the highest type gathering held in our connection for Epworth League workers. and your Board urges all who can to attend this great Assembly.

The plan of supporting the Epworth League by assessment has produced a revenue for the Board so that it can do effective work and it asks the same appropriation as was made last year by the Conference.

Vacancies: We recommend E. K. Arnold to fill vacancy of H. A. Longino on the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. SAVAGE, Chairman.

DENNIS V. SNAPP, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Report No. 1.

Four years ago the Conference endorsed a resolution of this Board, by which three thousand dollars were promised to the Representative Church at Washington City. Through the efforts of Mr. W. W. Ball half of this amount has been secured and paid over. The Conference is under obligation for fifteen hundred dollars more and the money is urgently needed.

The Board now requests its Conference to renew or to continue the appointment of Bro. Ball for this purpose, and that he be given authority to visit the churches, or to approach the people in any other way that may seem advisable to him.

W. R. JOHNSON, Chairman.

W. D. WELBURN, Sec.-Tr.

Report No. 2.

Your Board of Church Extension has spent some five hours in three sessions seriously considering the problems committed to it.

We have had to struggle with the same old annual difficulty: that of attempting to make $2,700 satisfy applications for aid amounting to $10,640. Our appropriations are as follows: Corbin, $300; Lynch, $500; Park Church, $1,000; Quicksand, $250, and a loan of $500; Domino, $250, and a loan of $500; Marvin Chapel, $100.

Parsonages: Oddville, $200; Grassy Lick and Camargo, $100; Owenton, loan $500.

Receipts on assessment for the year are $4,329.38, being $126 less than for last year, with $28 birth day money from two Sunday Schools. The income of the General Board for the past year from all sources was $1,324,061, of which $400.00 was from Centenary funds. The general Loan Fund now is $1,501,697, yet this yields less than one-third of the amount asked for this year in loans. Our Conference Loan Fund is now $1,590. Our people should be kept informed as to the value of our Church Extension annuity plan as an investment. The General Board maintains a well equipped Architectural Department, which is prepared to offer valuable service to congregations contemplating building churches or parsonages. Write them. They may prevent expensive mistakes. A variety of pamphlets, instructive and inspirational are ready for free distribution.

W. R. JOHNSON, Chairman.

W. D. WELBURN, Sec.-Treas.

REPORT OF THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

In briefly reviewing the work of the American Bible Society, we cannot adequately portray its value, and potency in the world for good, and we are astounded at its immensity both as to territory covered, and work performed.

Being cosmopolitan in its nature, it goes to all peoples, and today is found in every land.

There has never been such sowing of seed in open furrows in human history as took place during the world war.

The four years covering the awful struggle of carnage and shedding of blood, more than twenty-four million copies of the sacred Scriptures in ninety to one hundred different languages were distributed in the trenches, the billets, the prison camps, the hospitals and cantonments of the belligerent countries, in addition to the work that was going on in other parts of the world as in normal times.

The efficiency of the Society in distributing the Word of God has been of the highest order, and indicates the superb manner in which a great opportunity has been turned into a great achievement.

There is no other organization upon which the Church can so well depend in its efforts to save the souls of men. It is one of the most powerful agencies in extending the Kingdom of our Lord in the world.

The Colporteur and the pioneer preachers blazed the way for the organized Church which is moving triumphantly on to the consummation of its task, and the full attainment of its purpose, THE WORLD FOR CHRIST.

The Society has printed the Scriptures in sixty-seven languages at the Bible House in New York, and it circulates the Bible in more than one hundred and fifty languages and types in the U. S.

In 1918 it issued Scriptures in seventy-five languages, abroad it issued Scriptures in sixty-six languages, and it is constantly aiding in the translation and the revision of the Scriptures.

The Society gave the Scriptures to the American Indians in five of their languages; to the Philippine Islanders in eight of their languages.

The Society has shared extensively in this beneficent side product of Scripture publication.

The Scriptures in whole or in part, have been printed in 650 living languages; it supplies Bibles for the blind, in English in five systems, Line Letter, Point Print, American and English Braille, and Moon. Arabic in two systems; Spanish, Armenian, Armeno-Turkish, Japanese, Korean, and Siamese one system each.

A special agency cares for the colored people in the United States of America. Immigrants are provided with the Scriptures in their own languages, and Bibles are being distributed in over ninety-one foreign languages at the present time.

The Society seeks out, and brings the Bible to the poor, the ignorant, the untaught, prisoners, strangers and travelers, the unchurched classes, the destitute, and is proving to be a great blessing to all these different classes of people.

This great work is being prosecuted on five continents and the islands of the Seven Seas.

It is done through eleven Agencies abroad with 993 workers, and nine Agencies in America with 621 workers; it is also being done through the agency of individuals, churches, Sunday Schools, societies, hospitals, ministers, and missionaries.

In one hundred and four years, as almoner of the American people, it has received and spent over $40,000,000.

In our conclusion of this report, we, your Committee, recommend to the pastors of the Kentucky Conference that they observe the last Sunday in November as Mayflower Universal Sunday, and that an offering be taken.

J. R. KENDALL, Chairman.

L. C. DeARMOND, Secretary.

THE REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE.

We have had before us for our consideration the exhibit of the Publishing Agents of The Publishing House, M. E. Church, South. We have carefully gone over every part of it, and we heartily commend the spirit of faithful and heroic service on the part of our Agents, that have brought such gratifying results out of the trying conditions that have confronted them both in the business and industrial world. Brought about by the great war, we would urge our pastors and people to be more earnestly effected in the circulation of The General Organ of the Church. The Methodist Review, Epworth Era, and other publications of the Church. All of these should be self-supporting.

We have also gone very thoroughly into the various recommendations made in the report of the Commission on Publication of the Central Methodist. We endorse and recommend the adoption of each of them by the Kentucky Conference. The report will be presented to you by the Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

M. T. CHANDLER, Chairman.

REPORT OF ORPHANS' HOME COMMITTEE.

As your Committee on Orphans' Home Work, we are ready to make the following report:

We made a careful study of the annual reports as made to us by both our Superintendent E. S. Boswell and the President, Mr. Lee Lewis. Beside this we interviewed closely our Superintendent with regard to all the details of the home.

We note with pleasure the progress of the work and commend most heartily our faithful workers. The institution has handled during the year seventy-one children having fifty-seven in the home now.

Your committee would request that you confirm the election of R. E. McDowell, Val F. Kimbel, G. W. B. Olmstead and E. S. Boswell for three years. This completes the Board with John C. Strother, R. M. Smith, W. E. Arnold and J. F. Davis for one year and S. O. Snyder, W. T. Baker, Dr. J. B. Lukins and Mr. Lee Lewis for two years.

We also recommend that you ratify the election of E. S. Boswell as Superintendent and Agent and Mrs. Jessie R. Williams as Matron. The President's report commends very highly the faithful service of these two workers.

We believe that our institution is progressive in its efforts to develop the lives of our children to the highest point possible; and believe furthermore that they have the best of moral and intellectual training; and the testimony of those visiting the home is that the atmosphere of the institution is happy and cheerful.

We are deeply impressed with the fact that the work of our Orphans' Home is of the highest order yet we believe that steps ought to be taken at the earliest opportunity to prepare for a financial drive in order that we might have buildings and grounds not only adequate for our work but that will also measure up to the progressive steps taken by Orphanages of other Conferences.

We append herewith the financial report of the President as part of our report.

REPORT OF TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

The Committee which the Conference appointed to investigate and bring to you a report upon temperance conditions, wishes to direct your attention to a critical situation that now confronts the people of these United States and especially the citizens of this Commonwealth.

The most significant piece of moral legislation of the last fifty years consists in writing the Eighteenth Amendment into the Constitution of the United States of America. It should be remembered that forty-five out of forty-eight states of this Union registered their decision that the time had come for the abolition of the liquor traffic in America; and it should be also kept in mind that of the remaining states of Connecticut, Rhode Island and New Jersey (which states rejected the amendment only by a negligible majority), statistics show that five-sixths of the inhabitants are either foreign-born or are the children of foreign-born parents.

This amendment to the fundamental law of our land was brought about by constitutional and democratic methods and all efforts to declare it unconstitutional have signally failed.

The only way by which a law written into our constitution can be enforced is the passage by Congress of an act of enforcement. The Volstead Enforcement Act was a specific provision for fulfilling the will of the people of this republic in enforcing the Eighteenth Amendment. It will be recalled that this law was not in any sense a partisan measure, having been passed over a veto by more than two-thirds majority of Congress.

It should be remembered, too, that the liquor forces of the nation at great expense carried the contest to the Supreme Court, only to be turned down by the unanimous action of that distinguished body on the entire seven points of appeal, thereby settling for all time a most important legislative act.

The American people are tired of the liquor business. The question has been settled at the ballot box and in the manner prescribed by law. And the question must never be reopened. No constitutional amendment has ever been repealed. The Eighteenth Amendment must remain where the American people have placed it and the Volstead Enforcement Act must not be weakened.

But here lies the danger to which your committee directs your earnest attention. Temperance experts declare that the chief hope of the liquor interests is to elect a sympathetic president and a congress which will so modify the Volstead Law as to increase the alcoholic content of beer and wine.

The victory won by the loyal red-blooded American people is the result of too much labor and sacrifice covering too long a period to allow it to be wrested from us by the disloyal and disreputable liquor interests.

No less a statesman than Hon. William Howard Taft has recently declared that the Prohibition Amendment having been incorporated into the Constitution of the United States and Congress in the exercise of its constitutional rights and duties having passed an act to enforce this amendment, the American people stand committed to the policy and principle of prohibition.

According to this interpretation, every loyal citizen is in principle a prohibitionist, and those who are attempting to overthrow the constitutional law of the nation are guilty of disloyalty to the United States of America.

We are soon called upon to elect from this Commonwealth to Congress eleven representatives and one senator, and next year we are to elect the larger part of the enforcement machinery of the State of Kentucky. We appeal to our citizens everywhere to do everything in their power to commit every candidate to stand solidly for the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act and to do everything possible to defeat every man and every measure whose aim is the modification of our temperance laws in favor of a larger alcoholic content in the beverages permitted by law.

Our own people having risen up in their might and overthrown the liquor traffic in the state of Kentucky, it is the duty of every loyal citizen of this Commonwealth to apply the same vigilance and zeal to the preservation of our State victory, as is appropriate in the national crisis.

Our sympathies are with the aims and objects of the Anti-Saloon League, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Prohibition Party, and all other temperance organizations in their efforts to complete the destruction of the liquor traffic in the United States of America and throughout the world, and we urge our citizens everywhere to give all the encouragement and assistance possible to the state and federal authorities in their efforts to enforce law.

The liquor traffic has been overthrown; it must be annihilated!

(Signed) J. FRANK RICHARDSON, Chairman.

HENRY W. BROMLEY, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We, your Committee on Sabbath Observance, submit the following report:

We are in the midst of appalling, widespread desecration of the Holy Sabbath day.

This has become a national sin.

We must in some way throw ourselves in the breach.

The Sunday base ball craze has invaded almost every village and cross roads community, and in some sections the match games, and Sunday practice, are not only attracting the attention of our membership but demanding their patronage.

Joy-riding is so prevalent that many of our Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues and preaching services are depleted, and the Sunday newspaper is occupying the time that should be spent in God's house.

Sunday railroad excursions are claiming the day, and demanding relaxation for the laboring man, which often results in dissipation or prodigality. Some of our people take advantage of reduced rates and travel on Sunday trains to save time and money, and to attend to business.

The censorship which in some measure has been attempted on the "movies" is a failure in many places, and the picture show is crowded on Sundays with the young that should be in the services of God's house.

An earnest effort should be made to make the program of the Sunday service in the Sunday School and Epworth League so attractive that a desire may be fostered for attendance, and our pastors should make earnest efforts to secure the attendance of our young people upon the ministry of the Word, by giving them special attention or a place of service.

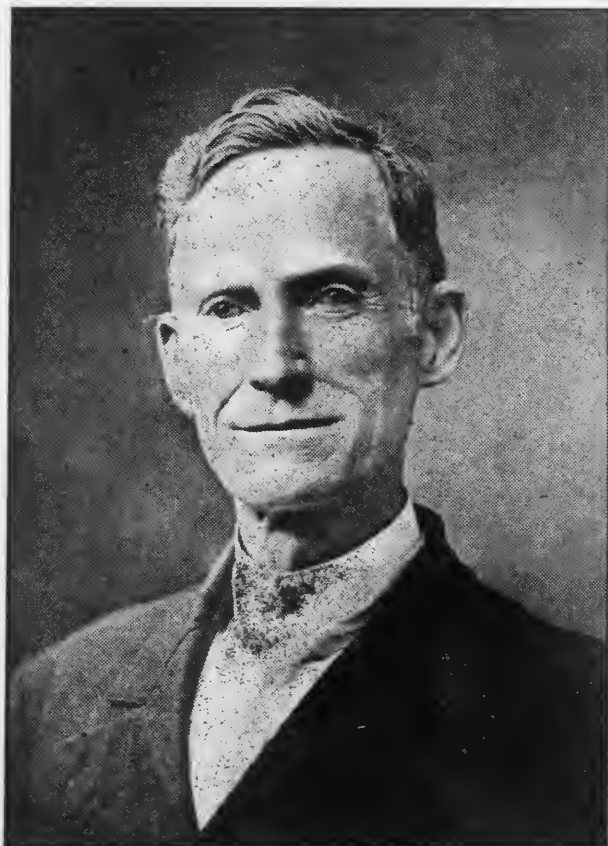

Our young people, and older as well, must be saved from or recovered from this vortex of ruin—Sabbath desecration.

J. W. CRATES, Chairman.

MARVIN P. McCLURE, Secretary.

Memoirs

REV. TAYLOR WINCHESTER BARKER.

Taylor Winchester Barker, the son of Greenup and Mariah Barker, was born in Campbell County, Ky., March 20, 1849. His education was received in the common schools of his native county, later in Kentucky Wesleyan College, and last in Lebanon, Ohio. According to his testimony he felt called to preach when just a boy five years old; but he did not give his heart to God and get converted until a boy in his teens. Sometime after, he was granted license to preach as a local preacher, and in 1876 he was admitted on trial into the Kentucky Annual Conference. His first appointment was Jackson and Beattyville; next year he was sent to the Elliston Mission; in 1879, he was assigned to the Milton Charge, where he served four years. Again in 1896 he was returned to Milton, and served three years again. He was pastor at Campbellsburg, Grassy Lick and Mt. Zion, Petersburg, 11th St., Covington, Warsaw, Falmouth, Alexandria, Visalia, Taylorsville, Stanford, Newport, Brooksville, and last at Burnside, Kentucky.

He was married to Miss Sallie Brooks, of Grant County, Ky., in the prime of his manhood. This marriage was blessed with three children, the oldest, a daughter, died some years ago. The second, Miss Myrtle Barker, the pride and joy of her father's heart, some years ago went as a missionary of our Church to Korea, where she has proven herself to be an efficient worker in the Master's vineyard.

The second, Miss Myrtle Barker, the pride and joy of her father's heart, some years ago went as a missionary of our Church to Korea, where she has proven herself to be an efficient worker in the Master's vineyard.

The youngest child, a son, Winston Brooks Barker, was the only child present at the funeral of his father.

In 1907, Bro. Barker's wife, the mother of his children, departed this life, and in 1909 he was happily married to Mrs. Linnie Caplinger, and they two lived happily together to the day of his death.

Possibly Bro. Barker was the greatest church-builder in the Kentucky Conference. During his ministry of forty-three years, he built twenty-eight churches, the last one on the Brooksville Charge was dedicated less than two months before his death.

He was a great believer in the efficiency of the Epworth League, and for a number of years was an active member of the Conference Epworth League Board, and I am sure that no man in Kentucky Methodism ever organized and re-organized as many Leagues as Bro. Barker. He was a tireless worker, and believed in and tried to work Mr. Wesley's rule, "All at it, and all at it all the time."

He was a great organizer. At the last conference I had with him, about a month before his death, in my study, in Somerset, Ky., he laid before me his plans for this Conference year's work. He had planned a house-to-house canvass of his town, and a revival campaign to follow later on, and at the funeral service there was living testimony to the execution of a part of these plans, given by the local pastor of the Presbyterian Church, for which he was praised.

Bro. Barker was very optimistic. I never saw him when he did not seem to have a smile, and to be in the midst of, or looking forward to, some great and successful enterprise. The last service that he and I were in together was in the opening services of my revival at Somerset, and he prophesied and testified to the fact that we would have a great revival, and his prophecy came true.

He was a great lover of music. My first recollection of a Methodist preacher, as a boy, was when Bro. Barker was the pastor in the community where I was reared, and he and Bro. Bristow introduced into the church in that community the first instrument of music, which was the talk of the community and attracted much attention.

The two last months of his life were very busy and strenuous ones for a man of his age. A move of two hundred and forty miles, tearing up at one place and straightening up at another, getting acquainted with his new people. And he was starting well into his year's work. In fact his people told me that no man had ever served them with greater acceptability than he. He was loved by the older people and by the children of all denominations: but, alas, to their great sorrow, after preaching Sunday morning and night of November 9, 1919, he was requested to preach a sermon on the Second Coming of our Lord, which he had agreed to do on the next Sunday and he had prepared his message. But he was never permitted to deliver the sermon, for on Wednesday night, November 12, 1919, he conducted his last service. By Friday he was a very sick man, and on the following Friday, November 21, 1919, he bade farewell to a life of labor and service, climbed into the chariots of eternity and went home to God.

Conscious to the last, he felt he was going. According to desire and choice he was permitted to die in the harness, missing only one Sunday from his pulpit here until he answered to the roll call on high. I conducted his funeral service in his own church, on Saturday morning, November 22, 1919, at 10 o'clock, surrounded by friends, a broken-hearted wife, and mourning congregation. I was assisted in the service by two local Baptist ministers, and the pastors of the Presbyterian, and Disciples Churches of Burnside. The body was then conveyed to Falmouth, Ky., where it was laid to rest by the side of his daughter and wife, the mother of his children. Farewell, dear brother, we will meet again!

Thy glorious warfare's past.
The battle's fought, the race is won
And thou are crowned at last."

REV. G. W. CRUTCHFIELD.

George Wythe Crutchfield, son of Albert and Hattie Crutchfield, was born October 9, 1862, at Goshen, Oldham County, Ky.

He was converted in early manhood, and joined the M. E. Church, South, at Shiloh, a country church near his home.

Feeling a definite call to preach, he joined the Kentucky Conference in 1887, and served the following charges:

Caintown Mission, one year; High Bridge, one year; Port Royal, four years; Bedford, four years; Gratz, two years.

REV. G. W. CRUTCHFIELD.

George Wythe Crutchfield, son of Albert and Hattie Crutchfield, was born October 9, 1862, at Goshen, Oldham County, Ky.

He was converted in early manhood, and joined the M. E. Church, South, at Shiloh, a country church near his home.

Feeling a definite call to preach, he joined the Kentucky Conference in 1887, and served the following charges:

Caintown Mission, one year; High Bridge, one year; Port Royal, four years; Bedford, four years; Gratz, two years.

In the fall of 1899, he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference and served the following charges: Biltmore, four years; Asheville, two years and Weaverville, three years. While pastor at Weaverville he raised the money necessary to build a much needed dormitory.

He returned to the Kentucky Conference in 1908, and served as follows: Covington, one year; Richmond, four years; Jenkins, two years.

At the Conference in 1915, he was made Presiding Elder of the Jackson District. He served this growing field not only with untiring devotion, but with gratifying results. Added to development in other lines, he raised the funds for a district parsonage.

The severe demands of this district over-taxed his constitution that was none too robust.

At the Conference at Shelbyville in September, 1919, he retired from active service.

He hoped that rest would restore his strength, but it was not God's will, and the Lord of the vineyard came suddenly and took him ere he could say goodbye.

The writer was assisted at the funeral, which was at Goshen, by Rev. J. D. Redd and Rev. Mr. Rule, a venerable minister of the Presbyterian Church, who had ministered to several generations of the Crutchfield family. And we laid him to rest in the family burying ground. He leaves a devoted wife, (nee Miss Belle Hall, of LaGrange, Ky.), whose active cooperation has multiplied his usefulness in every field where he labored.

His only daughter, Julia, came out of college cultured in mind, and deeply consecrated in heart. She is happily married to Mr. J. C. Kinzer, and is blessed with a small son and daughter. An only brother and sister also survive him: Mr. J. S. Crutchfield, a Christian business man with large interests in Pittsburg, Pa., and Mrs. Julia Snowden, of Goshen, Ky., an active worker in the Shiloh church.

It is the glory, and at the same time proof of the practical value of Christianity, that it is capable of being translated into experience, character and service. The Bible is more than a book of beautiful theories, which men may hold as an ideal. We may test its promises, prove its principles, and incarnate its experiences.

Bro. G. W. Crutchfield was more than an orthodox believer. He ingrafted the truth of Christianity into life and character; and its lofty principles were revealed in his conduct and ministry.

I cannot express what his friendship and influence meant to the writer. There was a high mindedness, and a lofty and unswerving integrity about him—a singular victory over the subtle temptations that tempt men to regard self and self-interest, and to act from selfish motives. He did not seek place, or position, for he put the Kingdom first, and all things private or personal were secondary to this loyal son of the Kingdom. It was this unswerving faith, and high-minded loyalty that caused those who knew him intimately to connect him with that prophesy, "I will make a man like the shadow of a great Rock in a weary land." This writer has stood under the shadow of him amid the sand drift of human frailty, and felt an assuring confidence that however the average saint may drift from the highest Christian principles, here is one who maintains a steady step along the heights of sincere faith and holy living.

I do not mean that he was all this in his own strength. A man does not grow like a tree out of the earth and stand upright by his own strength; for experience teaches us that human nature is more like a vine, which must find a trellis upon which to climb from the "lowly earth into the vaulted sky." And if this human vine fails to find and cling to its trellis then it is doomed to lie in a mouldering mass upon the earth. Bro. Curtchfield not only found Christ as his Trellis, but the tendrils of his faith and love clung ever to Him. And in clinging he climbed, for the strength of his Divine Trellis ever sustained him. For him to live was Christ and therefore to die was gain. It was the gain of exchanging the worn-out tenement for the house not made with hands. The perishing earth was released for the abiding heaven. He had spent the winter in Florida, and returning from there, he and Sister Crutchfield stopped at Richmond, Ky., where scores of friends greeted them with warm cordiality. He spent the forenoon Saturday preceding Easter in greeting friends. In the afternoon he lay down to rest and God changed his brief repose into eternal rest. His manner of going reminds one of the little girl's version of Enoch's translation. She said, "Enoch walked with God for three hundred years, and one day Enoch was out walking with God and God said to Enoch we are nearer my house than yours. Thus Enoch was not, for God took him." Bro. Crutchfield spent much time apart and alone with God, and so while alone on this Easter eve God drew near as He was wont to do. And He touched his heart as we would still the pendulum of a clock to move it to a new place—thus he was not, for God took him. Took him on the eve of Easter, when heaven and earth were vibrant with the triumphant glory of the resurrection.

Bro. Crutchfield built up the Kingdom in every field to which he was assigned. Mission, circuit, station, and district were served by him. Perhaps his preaching and influence were most potent as Presiding Elder of the Jackson District. He was not a time-serving official, tracing the figures of a mere program; but a courageous leader, inspiring the pastors associated with him, and dispensing information and vision to Quarterly Conferences. Like his Master he literally gave himself for the church that it might be a more glorious church. Any sketch of Bro. Crutchfield would be incomplete that did not mention the type of his religious experience and life. He was saintly without being sanctimonious, pure without being puritanical. He loved life and had a fine sense of humor. He did not indulge in coarse, or questionable jokes, but his cheery genial soul beamed with a healthy humor that was like a spring sun that melts the heart of the winter.

In other words he had a normal, healthy, genuine kind of religion that not only endures and bears acquaintance, but helps other folks while its possessor is working out his own salvation with fear and trembling. He was peculiarly fortunate in his marriage, and our deepest sympathy goes out to Sister Crutchfield and his daughter Julia, who helped him while he lived, and are now bereaved by his decease.

REV. WILLIAM F. VAUGHAN, D.D.

Dr. W. F. Vaughan entered upon his reward in the "house not made with hands," July 14, 1920, having finished his 78th year of age, and 53 years in the traveling connection in the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Another such as he was never in our midst, and may never be again, though we trust his mantle may fall on some worthy young man.

Dr. Vaughan was a unique person, though never making an effort to be peculiar. He was large in body, strong in mind, pure in heart, and holy in life. He gained his leadership in his home Conference clearly by the strength of his unusual ability. No one ever heard him preach, but that they desired to hear him again. He was always interesting to the auditor. He was deeply spiritual and had many people converted under his ministry.

His originality of thought and terse way of putting truth made him very popular, and he was invariably loved very devotedly by every people whom he served, either as Presiding Elder or pastor. Tender and considerate of every one, he was highly appreciative of any kindness shown him.

I see from one of his scrap books an expression significant of the spirit that always attended him. When the church of Somerset, Ky., had passed resolutions of appreciation, he expressed himself as follows:

"Such honorable mention is gratifying, and will be helpful in another field. The brethren acted wisely in not waiting until I am dead to speak my praise—I can read those resolutions with my eyes and experience pleasure in my heart, thank God for honor conferred direct, and take courage." My association with him had never been very close till since the last Conference, but I found him as the cluster of grapes fully ripe, and his life as the finest of the wheat. He was "Big brother" indeed, and I miss him much—I am better by having touched him. He had a grace and faculty not possessed by every one, to win and hold the hearts of all whom he served, and when gone, in case he returned, each touch cemented his friends to their pastor. He was truly a friend of the pastors and servant of the church. His presence in any community was a blessing.

Strength and humility made him a shining illustration of the power of Christ to save, lead and use. His conversion was clear; his consecration full; his waiting for the enduement was very manifest; he was a chosen vessel indeed.

The following clipping from a note in a scrap book is opportune: "As the Lord opened the way, he followed. In the matter of education and ministry, he had a good beginning. His first congregation was his classmates and schoolmates in the college building Sunday evenings. He was licensed to preach and admitted into Kentucky Conference inside of six days; was ordained at the beginning and close of two years, and served a proper time on the skirmish line."

W. F. Vaughan was the son of John S. and Matilda Rinehart Vaughan, and was born August 11, 1842. He had the advantage of good training in the home. A portion of his school work was with W. B. Godbey as language teacher, and his college work gave ground for independent thinking with his unusually strong brain. His first pastoral charge was Salt River circuit: then Mackville, Salvisa, Richmond, Vanceburg, Mt. Carmel, Bryantsville, Salvisa, Taylorsville, New Castle: from this charge he was made P. E. of Shelbyville District.

W. F. Vaughan was the son of John S. and Matilda Rinehart Vaughan, and was born August 11, 1842. He had the advantage of good training in the home. A portion of his school work was with W. B. Godbey as language teacher, and his college work gave ground for independent thinking with his unusually strong brain. His first pastoral charge was Salt River circuit: then Mackville, Salvisa, Richmond, Vanceburg, Mt. Carmel, Bryantsville, Salvisa, Taylorsville, New Castle; from this charge he was made P. E. of Shelbyville District.

Covington District, Danville District, Maysville District—serving each four years. He was then put in the pastorate again, and showed that he was equally efficient there after sixteen years in the eldership. He served Harrodsburg station, Stanford, Somerset and Carlisle. The last charge was Burnside church, where he served four years, and then after fifty-three years regular service, he took a superannuate relation. When Bro. T. W. Barker died, the good people of Burnside begged their beloved Bro. Vaughan to come to them and serve all he could, and in this loving relation he labored till only a few weeks before he was called to rest in the Land of Pure Delight. His funeral was conducted in Harrodsburg Methodist Church, with a large congregation of deeply sorrowing friends, lay and clergy, from many places in Kentucky Conference.

The Knight Templar Masons, of which order he was a very worthy member, attended in a body. The writer was assisted by J. P. Strother, P. E., of the Danville District, C. H. Greer and M. S. Clark. Other members of Kentucky Conference present were W. E. Arnold, Editor of the Central Methodist; J. W. Crates; H. C. Martin, G. W. Boswell, H. G. Turner, Dr. C. C. Fisher, and J. M. Baker, a local preacher from Salvisa. A number of friends from the laity representing many churches, among others Somerset, Carlisle and Burnside, the last charges which he served.

He was happily married to Miss Lizzie Gritton, on Salvisa charge, in 1871. Their lives were an uninterrupted stream of joy in each other's love. To this union God gave two sweet girls, who remained long enough to bring rapturous joy to parents' hearts as they grew into charming, pure, Christian women. But death spread a dark cloud over the home and claimed them both in early life. They left the father and mother the comforting assurance that they had the witness that they pleased God before He took them.

Bro. Vaughan sorrowed deeply over his loss in the going of the girls, but ever afterward seemed to live near the border land, and we know the journey to them was not long for him. His excellent, faithful wife may be comforted by the clear knowledge that for forty-nine years she proved all a wife and mother could be to a Methodist preacher, his family and his work, and she is as fondly loved and as fully trusted as was her worthy husband and their precious children.

The full gathering where there will be no parting will be soon. Dr. Vaughan, we will soon join you. Till then let us say:

“Servant of God, well done!
Rest from your loved employ.
The battle fought and victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy.”

MRS. W. T. ROWLAND.

"Why do we mourn departed friends,
Or shake at death's alarms;
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
To call us to his arms."

Mrs. W. T. Rowland, nee Miss Ena Conn, was born in Carrollton, Ky., November 2, 1854, and winged her flight to the celestial clime February 27, 1920. She was the daughter of Dr. J. V. and M. E. Conn. She was given in marriage to Rev. W. T. Rowland, November 2, 1875. For this high and holy relation, she was admirably fitted by nature and education. God seemed to have designed her for the position she occupied and for the companion of the man whom she married. Gentle, cheerful, hopeful, she was the sunshine and joy of her home, the loving and beloved of husband and children, and not only in her home, but in every circle in which she moved. In her own home town in which she was reared and in which she lived her girlhood life, and spent her declining years, she was a general favorite and her devoted friends equaled the number of those who knew her. This was attested by the profusion of beautiful flowers that covered her casket and grave.

In 1875, the year of their marriage, Bro. Rowland was stationed at Danville and I at Perryville. Feeling that she would feel a little lonesome among entire strangers, having never lived elsewhere than in Carrollton, we invited them to make us a visit, which they did. Although we had known and appreciated her before, we learned more of her beautiful character then, and grappled her to our hearts with hooks of steel. The bond of friendship was never broken, nor will it ever be, for she and the dear one—then the mistress of the Perryville parsonage—have crossed the great divide and are waiting for us to come home; just as they used to do here when we knew when we neared our homes, "there was an eye would mark our coming; and look brighter when we come."

The day is far spent. Our shadows fall far back over the trail we have pursued all these long weary years. The great divide is not far distant. We, too, shall soon cross over and sojourn with them for a little while until all sin and sorrow, pain and death are banished from this old world and we have new heavens and a new earth, the former things having passed away, and this becomes a mansion in our Father's many mansioned house; and then we are going to bring them back here and live for ever and ever. O, won't that be glorious? We shall never, until then, understand the mystery of suffering, the suffering she endured e'er death broke the bands that bound her here. For some months she was not able to attend the services of her church, which was a great trial to her. But she was ready when the messenger came.

Bro. Rowland wrote me in the letter in which he requested me to write her obituary, that "she suffered intensely the last two or three days, being relieved from the torture only by the doctor's remedies. I refrained from saying anything that would suggest death, lest with her weak heart, it might bring it on prematurely; but when I was convinced that the end was near, I had a brief talk with her, and asked her if Jesus was with her. She was too weak to talk, but nodded her head," thus testifying that:

"Jesus can made the dying bed,
Feel soft as downy pillows are;
While on his breast we lean our head,
And breathe our life out sweetly there."

She was one of the best women I ever knew, one of whom I never heard an unkind criticism. After a prayer and the reading of the burial service by Bro. Johnson, as per her request, her remains were taken to the cemetery and placed by gentle hands beside those of her mother.

She united with the Methodist Church in her girlhood and ever thereafter led a consistent Christian life, always ready to bear testimony to the saving power of Jesus Christ.

She is survived by one brother and two sisters; seven children—three sons and four daughters—one grandson, five years old, to whom she was tenderly devoted. May her bright, cheerful, loving spirit be the heritage of those she has left behind.

MRS. JNO. R. PEEPLES.

Mrs. Jno. R. Peeples (nee Smith) was born February 13th, 1850, in Irvine, Kentucky; died August 1st, 1920, in Winchester, Kentucky; daughter of Robert W. and Mary R. Smith; married first to Mr. Hamilton Gardiner, of Irvine, Kentucky, in the year 1870. Mr. Gardiner lived only seven years after this marriage. Married to Rev. Jno. R. Peeples in the year 1885. Bro. Peeples died May 2nd, 1918. Mrs. Peeples was converted and joined the church at the age of ten years. She was active in church work from the start, living a beautiful Christian life day by day. No more consecrated life has fallen under this pastor's care in these years of itinerant work.

Probably no greater test of fidelity is ever met than that of an itinerant preacher, unless it be the test that comes to the wife of the preacher. It is her part to "stay by the stuff" and strive to make every dollar buy its fullest worth. In all of the trying circumstances not a word of complaint can be allowed. As the partner and companion of her husband from year to year it was often necessary to carry an aching heart behind a smiling face. When the year's work was completed no one could know where the humble little family were to find shelter and food for the next year. By and by the day of superannuation was to come, and it did come, with all of its lonely feeling. Bro. Peeples retired, and this faithful wife retired with him, to their cottage home in the little city of Winchester, within plain view of our Kentucky Wesleyan College. In this quiet little home, with modest comfort, and a host of friends, Mrs. Peeples waited until the end came. She died in the full triumph of a living faith. She talked of "the Crossing" as though it were a journey to meet a company of loved ones on the other shore.

Two daughters, one stepdaughter, one sister, and six brothers are left to mourn their loss. The funeral services were held by the writer in the First Methodist Church, and we laid the remains of this noble Christian by the side of her consecrated husband, feeling that we would see them both again. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

MILLERSBURG COLLEGE

MILLERSBURG, KY.

Is now a standard Junior College for Girls and Young Women, offering in addition to College Preparatory Course, two years of College work under delightful, safe and inspiring surroundings. We would call especial attention to the Departments of Music, Art, Expression and Domestic Science, each of which is in charge of one or more trained specialists of ability and efficiency. Our buildings are new and attractive. Gymnasium, swimming-pool, tennis court, afford excellent opportunity for healthful, physical exercise. The present Fall Term has opened unusually well, and the outlook for a happy and successful year's work was never brighter. Catalogue sent on application.

C. C. FISHER, President

ALL EYES

Come to glasses sooner or later. When that time comes to you, that's the time for you to come to us.

No use trying to put it off; you might just as well yield gracefully. Do it now—TODAY—and have it over with.
